CULTURALLY RELEVANT CONVERSATIONS

01 EDITION | FEBRUARY 2022

THE ATHEIST PERSPECTIVE

EP. 06

When you talk to someone with a different worldview as you, how do you respond?

At Grand Canyon University, students are required to take a Christian Worldview class to learn how their religious beliefs and or spiritual relationships shape the way they see the world.

The GCU Multicultural Office's podcast, DiversiTea, is a new project that exists to educate and encourage listeners to think critically about the world around them. On episode 6, the podcast will explore topics of atheism and Christianity. We invite you to be a part of this conversation by listening to our podcast as we navigate diversity in faith.

"I define faith as believing in something you cannot see or touch, but can feel. I may not have any religious faith, but I believe in love, family and friendships." - Monique, Student
