

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long should I expect to be on the Pending Selection List?

A: Students pending selection will receive a timeslot to select their bed when one becomes available.

Q: When can I select my own bed?

A: Once you receive your selection timeslot, you can access your Housing application and select an available bed.

Q: Can I live with my friend?

A: If a bed becomes available, you can select it or you can utilize room switch until Dec. 9. Please note, it is not guaranteed you will be able to live with a friend on campus.

Q: How will I know I have received a selection timeslot?

A: You will receive a selection timeslot email to your GCU email account.

Q: What do I do after I receive my pending selection timeslot email?

A: Follow the instructions in the email, which will include selecting your booking, meal plan, signing your housing contract and completing your housing application.

Q: What if I do not like my room after I select my booking?

A: Students will be able to access the Room Switch page, located in their housing application, to switch their rooms until Dec. 9, 2024.

Q: What should I do if I no longer want to live on campus for the Spring 2025 semester?

A: If you plan to no longer live on campus, you must submit a Housing Cancellation form located on the Housing Portal. If you have been placed in or selected a bed, please review the Housing Cancellation Deadlines.

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Approved by the Manager of the Department of Housing on Aug. 6, 2024. ©2024 Grand Canyon University 24HOU0057